

CURRENT BOARD MEMBERS

Allan Bolstad

Mr. Bolstad has a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Alberta and spent 13 years as a journalist. He served as a City of Edmonton Councillor from 1992-2004 and went on to work as a sessional lecturer in the journalism department at Grant MacEwan College. The past nine years were spent as Executive Director of the Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues and he recently served three years as a board member of the Edmonton and Area Land Trust.

Chris Buyze

Mr. Buyze is a designer and small business owner working in residential and commercial design for over 15 years. His firm's work can be found all over Alberta and British Columbia, with particular specialties in custom residential infill, historic restoration, facade improvement, and energy efficient building technologies including the use of straw bale, structural insulated panels and concrete panels. He is a community leader with extensive involvement in Downtown Edmonton's development over the past decade.

Kathy Cherniawsky

Ms. Cherniawsky obtained her Master of Laws Degree at the University of Alberta. She taught classes at the University of Alberta, Grant MacEwan University, and NAIT, and worked in private practice in Edmonton, with a focus on administrative law.

Brian Gibson

Mr. Gibson is a managing partner in business consulting. He is a former executive with a major telecommunications organization. He is actively involved in the community and has extensive Board experience.

Louise Gibson

Mrs. Gibson began her career with Alberta Municipal Affairs processing subdivisions and writing zoning bylaws and general plans for small Northern Alberta municipalities. After two years she joined the City of Edmonton where she was active in all aspects of planning for 18 years. Mrs. Gibson then accepted a position with Carma Developers where she advanced from Senior Development Manager to Vice President, Communities for the Edmonton Region. She left the company in 2014 to form Gibson Development Management. Through this company, she manages and advises on development projects for both the private and public sectors. Mrs. Gibson is a Registered Professional Planner in Alberta and a full member of the Canadian Institute of Planners.

Rick Hachigian

Mr. Hachigian was employed by the City of Edmonton from 1976 to 2013. He is a former Land Use Control Officer, Development Officer, and Development Planner.

Nancy Hack

Ms. Hack has a conflict-management practice providing mediation, facilitation, consultation, and workshops. She has a CTAJ designation from the Foundation of Administrative Justice, where she instructs.

Ken Hample

Mr. Hample spent many years as a Municipal Engineering Manager in public service as well as a consultant/project manager to the land development industry in private practice. He was formerly employed by the Government of Alberta as a senior manager in legislation, policy and strategic plan development for the Occupational Health and Safety Program.

Rohit Handa

Mr. Handa is a Registered Architect and a Student-at-Law with a large multi-national consulting firm. He will be called to the Alberta Bar in the summer of 2016. Mr. Handa obtained his Juris Doctor from the University of Alberta and his Bachelor of Architecture from Drury University in Missouri.

Gwen Harris

Ms. Harris was admitted to the Alberta Bar in 1995 and has been involved in quasi-judicial appeal adjudication as chair of the Child Welfare Appeal Panel and as a hearing chair with the Appeals Commission for Workers' Compensation. Gwen has been extensively involved with the Civil Claims Mediation Program in the Provincial Courts of Alberta. She has been an active volunteer and is currently serving on a number of boards.

Robert Hobson

Mr. Hobson is a registered professional planner (APPi) with over 40 years of experience in federal, provincial and local government as a planner, consultant, developer, and municipal councillor. He obtained a Masters Degree in Planning from University of British Columbia and a Masters Degree in Public Administration from Queens University.

Patricia Jones

Ms. Jones has been a member on a variety of boards at local, provincial, national, and international levels in a variety of areas, including NAIT, the Edmonton Police Commission, and the Alberta Cancer Board.

Jim Kindrake

Mr. Kindrake obtained his Law Degree from the University of Alberta in 1978. He has practiced litigation in both the private and public sectors, finishing his legal career as Senior Counsel with the Department of Justice Canada. He has been a sessional instructor at both the Faculties of Law and Business at the University of Alberta.

Debby Kronewitt Martin

Ms. Kronewitt-Martin is a Managing Partner of a local business consulting firm specializing in strategic management, project management and organizational change management. She holds a diploma in Urban and Regional Planning from NAIT and spent time planning in the private and public sector, then worked in the public sector in communications, managing special events and information technology. She retired from the City of Edmonton after holding numerous senior positions during her 33 years there. She has sat on a number of boards and committees, including the Project Management Institute (NAC) and the Alberta Chapter of the Association of Change Management Professionals, as well as numerous School Parent Advisory Committees.

Vincent Laberge

Mr. Laberge holds an Honours Diploma from NAIT in Urban & Regional Planning Technology. He is Past President of both the Canadian Home Builders Association and of the Meadows Community League.

Shari LaPerle

Ms. LaPerle is University of Alberta graduate with a BA in Political Science. She also holds certification in Globalization and Governance as well as Alternative Dispute Resolution. She has experience in multistakeholder regulatory environments, both within and at arm's length from government. She has worked for the Capital Region Board, the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts and Counties, and the Government of Alberta's Aboriginal Relations.

Anna J. Lund

Ms. Lund has an LLB from the University of Alberta, an LLM from the University of California (Berkeley), and is currently working towards a PhD from the University of British Columbia. She volunteers at the Edmonton Community Legal Centre and teaches at the University of Alberta in the Faculty of Law.

Melanie McCallum

Ms. McCallum graduated from the University of Alberta with a BA in Sociology. She was formerly employed by the Alberta Department of International and Intergovernmental Relations, where she worked to advance the Province's global interests. She has served on various boards, councils, and committees, including community leagues.

Alex Nagy

As a consulting engineer, Mr. Nagy brings many years of experience to the Board, including department and program management, project management, and engineering and planning for development and urban infrastructure. He has provided services to municipalities and developers. As an Engineering Manager for Strathcona County, he was one of the development approving authorities. He has volunteered for numerous professional organization committees and Habitat for Humanity.

Ian O'Donnell

Mr. O'Donnell sits on the Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues Planning and Development Board and is Vice-President of the Downtown Edmonton Community League Board. He has extensive experience in land development, having worked as a consultant to developers and as a project manager for developers.

Art Peterson

Mr. Peterson is Professor Emeritus at the University of Alberta in the Department of Civil & Environmental Engineering. This is his second term on the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board.

Lyall Pratt

Mr. Pratt has 47-years' experience in geomatics, with 32 years as an active Alberta Land Surveyor. He has been Director of Practice Review for the Alberta Land Surveyors' Association, a guest lecturer in Geomatics Technology at NAIT and SAIT, and recently retired from active practice.

Elaine Solez

Ms. Solez has been active in community leagues for 25 years, focusing on planning and development matters. She was formerly employed by Government of Alberta, where she worked as a senior manager in the areas of planning, policy, performance measurement, and evaluation in the ministries of Education and Justice.

Noel Somerville

Mr. Somerville has experience in the architectural field. He was also a teacher and school administrator. He is the Chair of the Seniors Task Force for Public Interest Alberta.

Kavita Thind

Ms. Thind is the President of a project management and property development services company. She has experience in land development, project management, and infrastructure development in both the private and public sectors. She is a graduate of the University of Alberta, Faculty of Civil Engineering, and a current member of the Association of Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of Alberta (APEGA).

Winston Tuttle

Mr. Tuttle is a practicing lawyer in the areas of real estate, construction litigation, and corporate commercial law. He is an active volunteer with the Edmonton Community Legal Center.

Ian Wachowicz

Mr. Wachowicz is a partner in an Edmonton law firm and practices in the fields of development, construction, and municipal law. He also teaches at the Faculty of Law at the University of Alberta.

Colleen Van Tighem

Ms. Van Tighem graduated from the University of Alberta with a Bachelor's degree in Education and has taught in Edmonton and Yellowknife in a variety of Special Education classrooms. She is an active board member in her own community. As co-owner of an Infill Home building company her responsibilities include consulting with community league boards and clients in mature neighbourhoods.

Jim Wall

Mr. Wall has a 35-year career in the appraisal of Edmonton-area real property. Prior to joining the SDAB in 2014, he served six years on the Edmonton Assessment Review Board.

Mark Young

Mr. Young practiced law as a litigator for 30 years in the public sector. In addition to his law degree, he has an Engineering Degree and a Masters of Business Administration Degree.